—The new common council will meet this evening, for the purpose of organizing and getting ready for business.

—Mrs. Chas. S. Mann and her daughter, Miss Addie, of Milwaukee, are in the city visiting their aunt, Mrs. H. Ross.

—If a two-thirds vote of the common council is necessary to remit a fine, what consideration is a three-fifths vote entitled to?

—Captain Norcross will put down a twelve-foot concrete sidewalk in front of his River street block. Daily for the Captain.

—There is considerable loud talk on the streets to-day, regarding the action of the council last night in attempting to remit a fine.

—One of the large plate glass windows on the Franklin street side of Stearns & Baker's drug store, was broken last evening, but just how it was broken is what the proprietors want to find out.

—The remains of the late A. W. Alden, who was killed by the cars in Chicago, on Sunday night, will arrive here at 4:30 this evening, and will be met at the depot and taken direct to Oak Hill cemetery for burial. Rev. Mr. Wilcox will officiate at the grave.

—C. J. Bliss & Son have taken a lease of the large double store in the Norcross block, on River street, and have put in a large assortment of the J. L. Clark carriages, Champion harvesting machinery, wagons and cutters. Their large store room is an excellent place for the exhibition of these vehicles, and the display of harvesting machines. The public will find this a convenient place to call when in search of such articles.

—Miss Ida Davies, of the first ward, entertained the L. T. club yesterday morning with an elaborate Easter breakfast. The guests were seated at the handsomely furnished tables at eleven o'clock, and for two hours enjoyed, in a manner that gave evidence of appreciation of the bountiful repast. This occasion is spoken of as not only novel but very enjoyable. Easter breakfasts are given in a number of the eastern cities, but to Miss Davies is due the honor of introducing this species of hospitality in our own enterprising city.

—All the arrangements for the grand masquerade to be given by the Janesville Guards, in their armory, this evening are now completed, and the indications are that it will be the finest masquerade given in this city for years. A large number of very fine costumes are now at the hall, and parties have been busy all day making selections. The "humanity grinder" is completed, and will furnish considerable amusement this evening in turning out humorous characters. This machine works on the "crank" motion, and it is said to turn out funny characters as first as humanity can be furnished. There will be a large attendance. Tickets one dollar per couple; extra lady in mask, fifty cents; spectators twenty-five cents.

—The funeral of the late Eli Fish took place this afternoon at half past two o'clock, from All Souls church, and notwithstanding the rainy weather prevailing, there was a large attendance.
